GUY.

Just Saved His Life.

It was a thrilling escape that Charles Davis of Bowerston, O., lately had from a frightful death. For two years a severing trouble constantly grew worse until it seemed he must die of Consumption. Then he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery and lately wrote: "It gave instant relief and effected a permanent cure." Such wonderful cures have for 25 years, proven its power to cure all throat, chest and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at City Drug Store. 12-7-1m.

Prohibition.

Mr. Shroeder of St. Louis has been visiting at Prohibition this week and making it lively for the rabbits. Last spring Mr. Shroeder purchased a horse from the Prohibition Stock Farm for which he has since refused $300. The horse is beauty and deserves considerable attention in the city.

Wm. Davis gave a shooting match last Saturday in order to dispose of his crop of geese. Oscar Sailor secured 2, Elmer Aylor 2 and Berry Hudson 2. That is as far as our information extended.

Rev. Nash began a protracted meeting at Union Chapel last Sunday. It will continue two weeks. Everybody is invited to come and join in the work for the Lord. This is a good time to start in a new at the beginning of the year.

Frank Bacon of St. Louis spent the holidays at Prohibition. He made things "Bohre" at the box supper at Bellflower Wednesday night.

Wm. Goshorn, wife and baby, took supper at Prohibition Sunday evening. They are justly proud of their little "Turkey Creeker". We have spoken for it to exhibit at the street fair next year with Carnegie and the baby we bid defiance competition in the county.

Mrs. Mattie Bohrer returned from her visit in Kansas City Saturday. She will move to Montgomery this week where she will make her future home.

We believe in a strict observance of the Sabbath but Tom Stipp insists on Hallowe'en nearly every Sunday evening.

Since last week's issue Mr. Maddox has sent a bid of $75. for the Prohibition male.

Cline Estes sold a fine two-year old Jumbo male to Wm. Welch last week for $100.

The committee of ladies on the management of the Xmas tree at Union Chapel, Mrs. Welch, Misses Leon Bishop, Emma Keable, Lucy Hoss and Rachel Stewart were handsomely remembered by the Sunday School in the way of a treat on the tree. We were glad of it, for we like to see people justly rewarded for their labors.

THE OLD CRANK.

Endured Death's Agonies. Only a roaring fire enabled J. M. Garrison of San Antonio, Tex., to lie down when attacked by Asthma from which he suffered for years. He writes his misery was often so great that it seemed he endured the agonies of death. But Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption wholly cured him. This marvelous medicine is the only known cure for Asthma, as well as consumption, coughs and colds, and all throat, chest and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed. Trial bottles free at Muns & Adams' Drug Store.

Observations at the party.

Miss Witte looked very Ernest while Otto run the phone Lawson charmed the Birdie some of the young ladies were attracted by the Hall, while others seemed to admire the Cliff.

Persons who suffer from indigestion can not expect to live long because they cannot eat the food required to nourish the body and the products of the undigested foods they do eat poison the blood. It is important to cure indigestion as soon as possible, and the best method of doing so is to use Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what eat and restores all the digestive organs to perfect health.
